
Amendments concerning the community / common transit regime and the transit regime using TIR carnets

22 July 2014

In brief

Order 1420/2014 of the President of the National Agency for Fiscal Administration has been published, approving the technical Norms of application of the transit regime using TIR carnets. Order 1421/2014 of the President of the National Agency for Fiscal Administration has also been published, approving the technical Norms of application of the community/common transit regime.

In detail

Order 1420/2014 repeals Order 1991/2009 and Order 1421/2014 repeals Order 3000/2009. These new Orders clarify customs officers' responsibilities and the actions to be taken in the event that the NCTS (New Computerised Transit System) application stops working temporarily.

Order 1421/2014 also establishes the documents accepted as a transit declaration for the backup procedure.

The takeaway

The documents which may be accepted by the customs authorities as a transit declaration for the backup procedure are clearly stipulated.
